THE SEVEN SEASONS

- Mercury (mind), Venus (relationships),
- Mars (action), Jupiter (growth),
- Saturn (limits), Uranus (disruption),
- Neptune (dissolution).

Read it straight through once. Then go back to the dates.

PART I

The Core Dynamic

Before timing, wiring. What each of you runs on when nobody is performing.

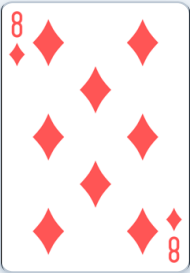

THIS PART ANSWERS

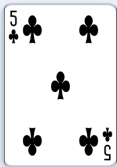

- I What does each of you bring by default?
- II Where do your best selves meet?
- III Where do your worst habits collide?

You, by the cards

◆ HOW YOU'RE BOTH WIRED

BIRTH CARD

RULING CARD

Buyer · Born Feb 17, 1991

The Businessman

You run the money system in the open and you can explain the call. You approach resources as something to master and control. You're ambitious, competitive, and strategic. You know how to play the game and win.

THE DIAL

UNDER STRESS You step back from resource leadership. Power looks dangerous, so you leave it on the table.	AT YOUR BEST You run the money system in the open and you can explain the call.	PUSHED TOO FAR You use money to keep people in line. The ledger becomes a hierarchy.
---	---	--

BUILT-IN GIFTS

- ◆ Strategic thinking about resources and power
- ◆ Natural ability to leverage opportunities
- ◆ Ambitious drive and determination
- ◆ Talent for creating material success

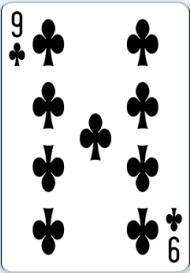

THE SHADOW

Money becomes the way you keep score and keep control. The win is public; the relationships are not.

YOURS · Which end of the dial did the people closest to you get this past month?

BIRTH CARD

RULING CARD

Family member · Born Feb 29, 2000

The Humanitarian Builder

You keep the large view without skipping the next practical step. Your thoughts are about humanity, progress, and possibility. You think in big pictures and universal principles. Your mind is oriented toward uplift.

THE DIAL

UNDER STRESS You hold an old map after the terrain has changed. Fatigue looks like loyalty to the idea.	AT THEIR BEST You let a used-up framework go and keep the part that still works.	PUSHED TOO FAR You preach the map. Other viewpoints are treated as incomplete versions of yours.
---	--	--

BUILT-IN GIFTS

- ◆ Visionary thinking and big-picture perspective
- ◆ Ability to inspire others toward possibility
- ◆ Universal principles and humanitarian ideals
- ◆ Natural optimism about human potential

THE SHADOW

The big picture stays cleaner than the work. Inspiration without follow-through teaches people not to wait for you.

Where you click

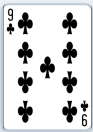

♥ WHERE YOU CLICK & WHERE YOU CLASH

Put everyone’s best version in one room. This is what it sounds like.

You

You run the money system in the open and you can explain the call.

Sample 2

You let a used-up framework go and keep the part that still works.

YOURS · Which of these lines describes something the others secretly rely on?

Where you clash

♥ WHERE YOU CLICK & WHERE YOU CLASH

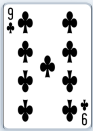

Now the low roads. Clashes rarely start with the big stuff. They start where one person’s stress meets another person’s excess.

You

Under stress. You step back from resource leadership. Power looks dangerous, so you leave it on the table.

Pushed too far. You use money to keep people in line. The ledger becomes a hierarchy.

Sample 2

Under stress. You hold an old map after the terrain has changed. Fatigue looks like loyalty to the idea.

Pushed too far. You preach the map. Other viewpoints are treated as incomplete versions of yours.

YOURS · When you two clash, whose low road shows up first?

Shared cards

♥ WHERE YOU CLICK & WHERE YOU CLASH

Exact matches between your core cards. Rare, and worth noticing when they happen.

No shared cards.

Nobody here holds anyone else's birth or ruling card. You are built from different material. Neither good nor bad, it just means the connection has to be made on purpose. The dated crossings later in this reading show where it happens on its own.

PART II

Your Current Year Together

Chemistry is not fixed. Here is what this year is doing to it.

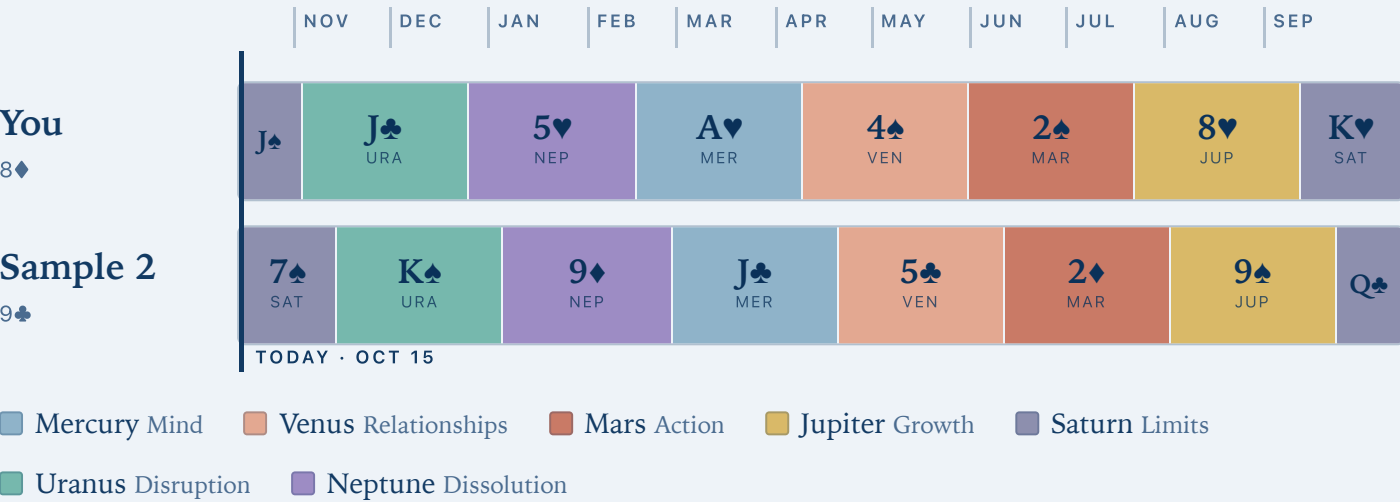

THIS PART ANSWERS

- I What is each of you going through right now?
- II When do you land in each other's year?
- III Which dates deserve a calendar alert?

The year on one page

◆ WHERE YOU ARE RIGHT NOW

Twelve months, one band per person. Each colour is a season. Each card is what that season is about.

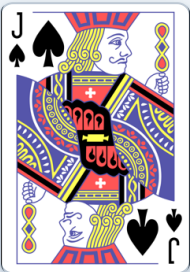

YOURS • Find the stretch where everyone changes season within a few weeks of each other. What usually happens in your life when that many things shift at once?

Right now

◆ WHERE YOU ARE RIGHT NOW

As of Oct 15, 2026. This is the season each of you is standing in today.

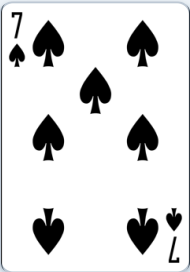

You · Saturn, Limits

Started Sep 13, 2026 · 20 days left

Best use. You name what is actually happening and you remain after you have said it.

Watch for. You say the true thing without staying for what it does to the room.

Sample 2 · Saturn, Limits

Best use. You study the hard pattern until you can name it, then you do the next honest thing.

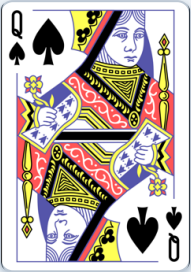

Watch for. You assume the worst reading and stop looking for the usable one.

YOURS · Read these together. Is anyone in a season that makes the others harder to live with right now?

The fine print

How the cards were calculated

Six 52-day periods; Neptune continues to the eve of the next birthday. February 29 anniversaries use February 28 in non-leap years.

Exact identity-to-position matches and intersecting identical birth-anchor period cards. No relationship score or outcome is inferred.

The complete engine JSON export contains every person, birthday cycle, period, card, connection, and sourced card meaning used here. Tables and section facts are generated from that same data.

Reader review

This is a preparation draft. Review the sourced language, add the personal reading in the Writing tab, and check every date and card against the engine JSON before delivery.

What this is, and is not

Interpretations describe patterns for reflection. The card matches do not establish relationship outcomes. The questions are there to be argued with.
